of New Mexico and McKeller of Tennessee were the only two who are supposed to oppose ratification.

Another test vote came on an amendment offered by Senator Walsh (Mont.), which was similar to the Robinson amendment, resulting in its being defeated by a vote of 27 to 50. The latter vote differed from the first only to the extent that some of the Senators who voted on the Robinson amendment had left the chamber.

This test of relative strength came in left the chamber.

This test of relative strength came in a day of debate which was more spirited than anything that has yet occurred. Senator Lenroot (Wis.), regarded as one of the keenest debaters on the Republican side, furnished the chief argument for the Republican majority.

On the Democratic side Senator John Sharp Williams (Miss.), Democrat, injected into the debate philosophy, humorand some startling statements which amused the galleries and stirred the ire of some of his fellow Democrats.

amused the galleries and stirred the ire of some of his fellow Democrats.

The Mississippi Senator charged that much of the opposition to the treaty was due to those who felt that it would assure peace with England, and what they preferred was war with that country so there "might be an Irish peace."

The Senator charged also that political partisanship was the actuating cause of the opposition.

the opposition.

Having avowed himself in favor of the League of Nations Senator Williams said: "If a Republican President had submitted the Versailles Treaty two-thirds of you on the Republican side would have voted for it, and if a Democratic President had presented this treaty two-thirds of the men on the Democratic side would be for it."

The Senator announced he is becoming very tired of a system which provides that one more than a third of the Senate can prevent the United States from encan prevent the United States f upon any international agreement fit to.

that so great a statesman as Senator Williams should devote his brilliant

"I am a Democrat," Senator Williams xplained, "a Bourbon Democrat, an old sanfoned Democrat, a plain old Missis-ippi fool of a Democrat, but I have no atlence with partisanship in dealing

Nothing Greater Than Peace.

Senator Williams Insisted there was nothing greater in the world than the love of peace, and the only thing that can drag the world out of its present condition is a love of the doctrine of the Prince of Peace. "I have no faith," he said, "in those who cherish animosities, non who hate rather than love one another on this miserable planet."

The speaker said he believed the Brandegee reservation took from the ## Denies Treaty Is Alliance.

Senator Lenroot (Wis.) devoted most of his time to demolishing the argument though the day before by Senator Borah cities will fail to get their-maintenance

"I realize." he said, "there are some who believe in a policy of isolation for the United States, and they are sincere. But there are some elements in this country that are not thinking of peace, but of war.

WANTED BY HARDING

President Preparing to Meet Issue and Will Make No Compromise.

GILLETT AGAINST GAG

Speaker Declares for Full such a gigantic land development project as is contemplated in the bill. Debate to Put Every Member on Record.

ring upon any international agreement is sees fit to.

Think the next constitutional amendment," he said, "should provide that treaties shall be ratified by a majority of the Senate and House in joint is special Disputch to The New York Herald.

PALM Brach, Fla., March 14.—It became provisions, proposed to be came evident to-day to those in touch with President Harding and members of his vacation party that the Adjority of the Senate and House in joint of his vacation party that the Adjusting the insurance certificates, with their loan provisions, proposed to be given to the ex-service men, have upon business and the banks of the country?"

That question has been answered. prity of the Senate and House in joint ministration is preparing for a show-fully in my letter sent to your comdown in the open on the bonus bill.

Speaker Gillett of the House, when ply. Senator Williams's double barreled he came ashore from the President's houseboat here this morning, said he was actuated either by German American or Irish American influence, or by "rule" rule to into the House, when the came ashore from the President's houseboat here this morning, said he was opposed to the adoption of any "rule" rule to into the House, when the came ashore from the President's houseboat here this morning, said he was opposed to the adoption of any "rule". contacted either by German American influence, or by rancor, drew protests from both or Robinson and Senator Stanley said, and amazed," Senator Stanley said, so great a statesman as Senator. the Ways and Means Committee on alents to so mean a purpose as to im-night the motives of a great people. I ave not a drop of Irish blood in my eins. I wish I had. When the history I day and explain to Mr. Fordney his view of the President. ory or song will be sweeter or grander han that of the suffering of the Irish believed the bonus question is the bigeople, and, thank God, Ireland to-day is Free."

Free. Houde resources in unliquid securities. He said the larger banks had had too much experience banks had had too muc

Such & question should be considered by the House, he believes, under rules of procedure which will not prevent either the friends or the opponents of the bill from expressing their opicions fully and offering all the amendments on the floor that may be necessary to put every man in the House on record on each important feature involved in the bill.

"We understand you oppose the present plan of having the national banks, State banks and trust companies make loans on the proposed insurance certificates to be issued to the ex-service men. Will you give us your reason?" asked Representative Longworth.

Done

"I believ pressively."

If the bonus advocates, under the leadership of Chairman Fordney, at-tempt to terce through a special gag rule to limit debate and amendments the adoption of such tactics, even though they may bring temporary success in the House, in the end will not help this attempt to raid the Treasury instead of facing the issue squarely and postpouing the legislation or enacting a sales tax to provide the cash.

Attorpay, (lease, and the plan proposed.

to provide the cash.

Attorney-General Daugherty likewise reflected the Administration view of the Thousands of Government trainees further explanation.

want friendly relations with Britain and would welcome war. a fact that experience of Irish descent. In the event of war first Britain there are those who hope that Germany's position would be bettered, while others believe it would at the Irish cause. But universally Americane want none of it.

"There are defeated the United States will enter the League of Nations. If these treatles are defeated the United States will enter the League of Nations. If these treatles are defeated, we would invere enter the Laague, and who would want to enter into any agreements with. To expect the maniform of the measure agreed to was introduced by the state of the provided with the state can issue its bonds up to $45,000,000 for a soldier bonus. The amendment with have to be adopted by the content of the provided with the state can issue its bonds up to $45,000,000 for a soldier bonus. The amendment with have to be adopted by the treatles are defeated, we would invere enter the League of Nations. If these treatles are defeated, we would will not enter into any agreements with the To the provided against the state of the provided provided the provided provided the provided provided the part of the provided pr

SHOWDOWN ON BONUS BONUS BILL IS ORDERED REPORTED BY 19-5 VOTE

Continued from First Page.

estimated cost of the land settlement provision, as was brought out later, and that the correct figures should have been $18,500,000,000. The Secretary tried to justify the figures by saying the whole estimate was problematic, as it is impossible for any one to predict with accuracy the cost of such a gigantic land development project as is contemplated in the bill.

Cheaper to Buy Farm Land.
Representative Hawley argued that Make long time loans on commercial paper, but some of them do make loans for one year on mortgages and for five years on country property. "In other words," said Representative Garner, "you are permitting a system of banking in the present emergency that would not be permitted in ordinary times."

"Yes," replied the Comptroller, "and for some of the Eastern banks, too."
Chairman Fordney said that if payment for overtime paper was enforced

Representative Hawley argued that ment for overtime paper was enforced to go out and buy farm land already tries in the country would be embardeveloped and give it to the soldiers rassed.

were correct.
Secretary Melion intimated that was so and said: "The reclamation feature in the bill is a very indefinite and unasked Secretary Melion: "What effect for such loans." would the insurance certificates, with mittee a few days ago," was the re-

To a question by Representative Frear (Wis.) Secretary Mellon can-

Most Equitable Method.

of panies make loans on the proposed certificate would be a good thing for

Mr. Mellon replied that the plan proposed is little different from a direct loan from the Treasury in that the loans are to be made on Government and business of the country."

security and are to be redeemed by the Gov. Harding refused point blank to plained that the Treasury Departies." other on this miserable planet."

The speaker said he believed the Brandegee reservation took from the treaty half of its effectiveness, but he sould vote for the treaty with the reservation, accepting the half as better than nothing.

Senator Robinson (Ark) answered Senators Williams with considerable bitterness, insisting the motives of Senators should not be questioned and denying the existence of partisan influence in his actions.

Senator McCumher (N. 1) council.

Senator McCumher (N. 1) council.

Senator Robinson (Ark) answered Senators should not be believed in Claims.

"It is no part of the Department of Senator McCumher (N. 1) council."

It is no part of the Department of Senator McCumher (N. 1) council.

Senator McCumher (N. 1) council.

Wast Sums Lavolved in Claims.

"It might interest those who are destainly interest those who are destain the question of a soldiers bonus, the said, "to know that claims are await that no burden is to be placed upon the fiscal year, and is in no shape to carry such a bunden as proposed. The fact that no burden is to be placed upon the fiscal year, and is in no shape to carry such a bunden as proposed. The fact that no burden is to be placed upon the fiscal year, and is in no shape to carry such a bunden as proposed. The fact that no burden is to be placed upon the fiscal year, and is in no shape to carry such a bunden as proposed. The fact that no burden is to be placed upon the fiscal year, and is in no shape to carry such a bunden as proposed. The fact that no burden is to be placed upon the fiscal year, and is in no shape to carry such a bunden as proposed. The fact the fiscal year, and is in no shape to carry such a bunden as proposed. The fact that no burden is to be placed upon the fiscal year, and is in no shape to carry such a bunden as proposed. The fact that no burden is to be placed upon the fiscal year, and is in no shape to carry such a bunden as proposed. The fact that no burden is to be placed upon the fiscal year, and is in no shape to carry such a bun

New York Herald Bureau.

New York Herald Bureau.

Washington, D. C., March 14.

Warning Not Necessary.

thade the day before by Senator Borah (14aho).

It is denies the treaty was an alliance in the usually accepted sense of an alliance and showed there was no relationship between this treaty and the Angilo-Japanese compact. It is true, admitted, that Article I. of the Angilo-Japanese alliance provides for conferences much after the manner of the four-Fower compact. But Article II., he showed, he vent of war each ally agrees to come to the others assistance.

The absence of the worl "unprovoked" from the description of those agreements or obligation for the use of force was correct. It showed, he said, that it proposes to include in the agreement "all aggreesions," and leaves the Powers fee to say the aggressions," and leaves the Powers fee to say the aggressions," and leaves the Powers fee to say the aggressions, and leaves the Powers fee to say the aggressions, and leaves the Powers fee to say the aggressions, and leaves the Powers fee to say the aggressions, and leaves the Powers fee to say the aggressions, and leaves the Powers fee to say the aggressions they might the life of the Worl and the Angilo-Japanese alliance provides that it is expected the declaration of the said, that it proposed to the said the Treasury Deartiment would not consider it necessary to send out a warning to banks advising them not to lend their funds on the proposed certificates. Reply-life to a question by Representative Longworth, the Secretary gave it set is a find to a question by Representative in making loans on such "slow paper." He added that banks undoubtedly will be condition of the other collateral held, but that no banks ordinarily make not them on the training loans on such "slow paper." He added that banks undoubtedly will be condition of the other collateral held, but that no banks ordinarily make not the training loans on such "slow paper." He added that banks undoubtedly will be condition of the other collateral held, but that no banks ordinarily make not the training loans on such "slow paper." He added that banks u said he was opposed to the national banks making loans on the proposed insurance certificates and if he had TO PASS THIS WEEK been properly quoted in the news-arguments or to take part in the fulade of questions that the members and if we were not very lenient many hurled at each other.

Apparently Mr. Mellon had not been advised by Actuary McCoy that there had been a mistake in transcribing his estimated cost of the land settlement provision, as was brought out later, and that the correct figures should to come of them do make loans on commercial.

"A bank that could not lend $175 or Government certificate would be in in the bill is a very indefinite and uncertain proposition and to carry out its provisions it will undoubtedly cost a vast sum. I am sorry at is in the bill at all."

Representative Crissing (Ga.) next Representative Crissing (Ga.) next would be likely to ask the certificates were made eligible for anything you would give them cash, and not a pawnbroker ticket," ob-served Representative Garner. "Yes," answered the Comptroller.

Governor Harding Testifies. Gov Harding of the Federal Reserve Board repeatedly refused to answer hypothetical questions or those of a political character. He comforted the bonus Congressmen to some extent by saying that he did not think the bonus certificates provided in the bill would constitute a menace to the Federal

Speaker Gillett made it clear that he believed the bonus question is the biggest facing Congress and the country because of the enormous sum of money because of the enormous sum of money involved and the threat against the finvolved and the threat against the finvolved as the country involved as the country involved as the country because of the enormous sum of money because of the enormous sum of money involved and the threat against the finvolved and the threat against the finvolved and the threat against the semble the Canadian sales tax scheme in the next breath by explaining that he thought the Federal Reporters will vote against the bonus bill. The last two or three years to take tramble that the majority of the thirty-four Republican members will vote against the bonus bill. The last two or three years to take tramble that the majority of the thirty-four Republican members will vote against the bonus bill. The banks had had too much experience banks would be extremely probable that the majority of the thirty-four Republican members will vote against the bonus bill. The banks had had too much experience banks would be extremely probable that the majority of the thirty-four Republican members will vote against the bonus bill. The banks had had too much experience banks would be extremely probable that the majority of the thirty-four Republican members will vote against the bonus bill. The banks had had too much experience banks would be extremely probable that the majority of the thirty-four Republican members will vote against the bonus bill. The banks had had too much experience banks would be extremely probable that the majority of the supporters of the certain to the threat banks would be extremely probable that the majority of the threat against the scheme in the next breath by explaining the country of the supporters and the country of the supporters of the

which you enumerate."

We understand you oppose the present plan of having the national banks, State banks and trust com-

good thing for the service men, but I be paid. It cannot be regarded as don't believe they will help the banks

Federal Reserve system at the end of be drawn into the controversy over the pending bonus bill. For instance, because of service to our country or hree years.

Replying to a question from RepreRepresentative Crisp (Miss.) asked: "Do you think it advisable for the Then there is $10,000,000, which comes out of the Shipping Board.

"It is no part of the Department of Justice to deal secretly with the bonus issue, nor do I mean to express any views on that question at this morning in favor of the resty by proposing a plan flow an association of nations. He read from the Republican platform of 1920 in favor of such a plan, and said what he had to suggest fulfilled this pledge.

"It is not an opportune time," he maked, to ask the President and the Administration what has become of the sense of the world?

"When the Versailles treaty was before the Senate the members of the Senate the first through some kind of international agreement to prevent another such world agree-ment."

The three is $10,000.000, which comes out of the Department of the Shipping Board.

"It is no part of the Department of such the Shipping Board.

"It is no part of the Department of the Senation platform the Policy of the Land of the uncertainty as to the time when the interest and principal from the money and plan and principal from the money and principal from the money and plan and principal from the money and principal from the money.

"When the Versailles treaty was before the Senate the members of the Senate the first three 'years will not be more than eight-tenths of 1 per cent. of the total assets of the banks.

"In view of that fact," he asked Secretary Mellon, "do you think the banks was five a strength and the Advanced in all probability by banks on the insurance certificates the first three 'years will not be a s the assumption that 8 per cent of the veterans would select the land settlement option.

The bonus advocates made much ado Mr. Mellon said the Treasury De-

Republicans. Representative Mills of New York did not vote, as his selec-tion by the Committee on Committees had not been submitted to the House. At the first meeting of the committee in the morning Chairman Fordney

U. S. Commerce Chamber to Get Jobs for Veterans

ecial Dispatch to THE NEW YORK HERALI New York Herald Bureau, | Washington, D. C., March 14.

THE Chamber of Commerce of the United States to-day called upon its member or-ganizations to cooperate with the American Legion in a national em-ployment day to be observed on ployment day to be observed on March 20, when a national cam-paign will be launched to aid vet-erans out of work or in distress. In a letter urging member or-ganizations to join in this move-ment, Elliott H. Goodwin, vice-president of the national chamber, cording to the announced plans of the legion, in a mass meeting to be held in each town on March 20, at which problems incident to the local condition will be discussed and a definite campaign of assistance mulated "The welfare of our veterans is of high concern to the nation. It is believed that our organization members will respond to the re-quests of the American Legion concerning the employment situation and render every assistance within their power."

for $175 multiplied by the large number of men who would be likely to ask for such loans."

Mr. Crissinger also stated that there would be less objection to the plan if would be less objection to the plan if th uated excess profits taxes and to use the foreign debt were beaten, 18 to 6. To another direct question Mr. Mellon declared some sort of a general tax, distributed over a large number of items so that no class or particular in-undoubtedly will vote for it. One of several other army camps and posts, them said to-night that Leader Mur- has been granted by the War Depart-unalterably opposed to the bonus. It is unscientific and cannot be equitably distributed among the veterans them-payment for acts of patriotism, for that is neither asked for by the vet-"I believe," said Gov. Harding im-pressively, "the certificates would be a erans, nor could so great a debt ever abled, for they only share equally with

"Do you think it advisable for the country to pass a bonus bill at this time?"

"We are creatures of Congress and legislation of that sort is no concern of ours. Our interest in the proposition is to see that the banks do not get overloaded with unliquid securities."

How have been incapacitated in whole will be passed over Gov. Edwards's veto or in part, I would, if necessary, legis late our last dollar. I cannot, however, justify an indiscriminate payment to many who neither need nor would constitute a stupendous drain on our resources and would deal a staggering blow to the already overbids were opened February 15.

The New York Commission met in adjoining offices, but took no action.

THINK U.S. MAY YIELD AUSTRIAN PRIORITY

British Financial Controller Says Schober Must Remain Chancellor.

Special Cable to THE NEW YORK HERALD-Copuright, 1925, by THE NEW YORK HERALD VIENNA, March 14.—Great Britain has set herself up as the director of Austria's political as well as financial destinies if the step ascribed to Edward Hilton Young, the British Financial Controller, may be taken as having the sanction of the British Government. Following his rouns, the British Financial Controler, may be taken as having the sanction of the British Government. Following his declaration yesterday that the parties must quit squabbling over unessential details Mr. Young is said to have told Chancellor Schober that the Entente insisted upon his remaining as the head of the Government in order that the credits already made and those to be extended in the near future by the Allica and Little Entente Governments can be utilized for the purposes for which they were loaned. The leader of the Christian Socialist party said that the members of his party would no longer demand schange in the Chancellorship. The Nationalists are expected to decide tomorrow whether they will give up their blitter opposition to Herr Schober.

Interviewed by the Neues Wiener Journal, Mr. Young said that Austria's will was good, but horribly slow, and that he had to ask the Government: "Are you ready? If so, do something, for God's sake." He is optimistic in the hope that the concentration of all the realistical forces will enable a speedy Sas, Crisp of Georgia and Martin of Louisiana, Democrats.

Mr. Fordney got the votes of two Democrats-Carew of New York and Tague of Massachusetts. Six amendments were voted down for one reason or another, all of which revealed a wide division of sentiment among the members of both parties.

The sales tax amendment was defeated. 19 to 5. Proposals to substitute a straight cash bonus, surtaxes, graduated excess profits taxes and to use a straight cash bonus, surtaxes, graduated excess profits taxes and to use a straight cash bonus, surtaxes, graduated excess profits taxes and to use a straight cash bonus, surtaxes, graduated excess profits taxes and to use a straight cash bonus, surtaxes, graduated excess profits taxes and to use a straight cash bonus, surtaxes, graduated excess profits taxes and to use a straight cash bonus, surtaxes, graduated excess profits taxes and to use a straight cash bonus, surtaxes, graduated excess profits taxes and to use a straight cash bonus, surtaxes, graduated excess profits taxes and to use a straight cash bonus, surtaxes, graduated excess profits taxes and to use a straight cash bonus, surtaxes, graduated excess profits taxes and to use a straight cash bonus, surtaxes, graduated excess profits taxes and to use a straight cash bonus, surtaxes, graduated excess profits taxes and to use a straight cash bonus, surtaxes, graduated excess profits taxes and to use a straight cash bonus, surtaxes, graduated excess profits taxes and to use a straight cash bonus, surtaxes, graduated excess profits taxes and to use a straight cash bonus, surtaxes, graduated excess profits taxes and to use a straight cash bonus, surtaxes, graduated excess profits taxes and to use a straight cash bonus, surtaxes, graduated excess profits taxes and to use a straight cash bonus, surtaxes, graduated excess profits taxes and to use a straight cash bonus, surtaxes, graduated excess profits taxes and to use a straight cash bonus, surtaxes and to use a straight cash bonus, surtaxes, graduated excess profits taxes

BRITISH BOARD HERE STUDIES POISON GAS

A commission of British experts now in the United States is charged with the duty of investigating American methods for producing noxious gases, with a view to incorporating into the British service any improvements which may be discovered. The investigations of this commission, which is headed by Col. M. L. Wilkinson, will include both industrial and military plants. Permission for the visitors to inspect Edgewood, the army gas center, as well as several other army camps and posts, is preparedness.

The British army, it is stated, has definitely decided that the gas mask shall be a part of the regular army equipment.

to obtain money from her European debtors, it is not a bad idea to cry out:

"Your discussion is purely academic You are losing time, You will never ge anything—not that your debtors do no

TUNNEL CONTRACT AWARDED.

who have been incapacitated in whole or in part, I would, if necessary, legislate our last dollar. I cannot

MEN'S FURNISHINGS SHOP

EN'S SHIRTS in French Custom: Fabrics at $4.00.

Cannot ordinarily be bought in ready-made shirts here or anywhere else.

We stole them from our Custom Shop and the patterns justify the theft.

They are indescribably beautiful!

Men's Shops-Separate Entrances On West 88th and 87th Sts. - Street Level

2,000 Troops on Rhine Cost $200,000 a Month

Special Dispatch to THE New York Herald.

New York Herald Bureau.

Washington, D. C., March 14.

A DJT.-GEN, P. C. HARRIS tonight estimated that there still are 2.000 American troops on the Rhine. More than 7.000 were there before the withdrawal order was issued. About half of the men withdrawn are on two transports making their way across the Atlantic. War Department officials to-day said that the approximate cost of maintenance of a force of 2,000 men on the Rhine would be more than $200,000 a month. The pay for the men alone would be about $100,000, Other costs would bring the total to more than double that sum each tion up to September 30, 1921, totaled $283,849,256.77, of which totaled $283,849,256.77, of which $24,866,686.25 was spent in 1920 and $15,663,423.41 for the year 1921 to

'RESERVE' U.S. CLAIM

Continued from First Page.

Debtors Have No Bad Faith,

but Are Unable to Pay. Special Cable to THE NEW YORK HERALD-Coppright, 1922, by THE NEW YORK HERALD New York Herald Bureau. ? Paris, March 14. )

"I've been reproached for using lan ment.

According to American army officials, nothing will be kept secret from the commission. Capt. J. D. Pratt, formerly of the famous Gordon Highlanders, and now a specialist in the British chemical warfare service, is expected to remain a long time at Edgewood.

American gas experts are thoroughly in sympathy with the British point of view, which, according to officers, is that the only defense against polson gas is preparedness.

guage which is likely to hurt the feelings of our American friends," says M. Loucheur. "I retract nothing. Business men over there like to play with the cards on the table; and it is not by taking a thousand petty precautions that we shall obtain anything from them. While the Senate is discussing the method the United States should employ to obtain money from her European guage which is likely to hurt the feelings

"Your discussion is purely academic. You are losing time. You will never get anything—not that your debtors do not recognize their debts, or that they have bad faith, but simply that it is impossible for them to pay."

M. Loucheur added that international reconstruction, moreover, was impossible without the assistance of the United States; and that France must continue States; and that France must continue groping along blindly until Washington decides to intervene.

THREE POINTS NOTED ON AMERICAN CLAIM

Paris 'Temps' Reports Action by Allied Ministers.

PARIS, March 14 (Associated Press) .-The formal reply of the allied Finance Ministers to the American demand for the payment of $241,000,000 as expenses of American occupation of the Rhin land before any other reparations are paid was handed to Roland W. Boyden to-day. According to the Temps, the note contains three points:

First—The allied Ministers take note of Mr. Boyden's memorandum.

Second—The note states that a clause was introduced into the agreement of the Finance Ministers of March 11 reserving the rights of the United States. Third—The Finance Ministers agreed they were unqualified to settle the guestion, which they agreed came within the competence of the various allied Governments, with which they suggested the American Government should take up the question.

IRISH STAMPS Postage Stamps Overprinted Rialtas Sealadach Na Herreann

(Irish Provisional Government).

The Secretary (Philatelle),
General Post Office,
DUBLIN.
The total face value of a full set is £1, 2, 2½, but remittances, which should be by Money Order (cheques not acceptable) should include the cost of postage (United States 2d.) and registration (3d.)

Philip SUVAL

Largest and best collection of Hezzotints and Etchings. Paintings Restored. 746 MADISON AVE.

Between 64th and 65th Ste., N. Y.

TAPING A HAND-TAILORED COAT EDGE

YOU'VE seen a coat edge wrinkle or cockle, of course. But you'll never see one of ours do it, for we hand-sew a cold-water-shrunk tape on the inside part of every coat edge to prevent it. It is just such details that make all the difference between clothes and-tailoring!

> DON'T FAIL TO SEE OUR EXHI-BITION OF KAND-TAILORING IN OUR FIFTH AVENUE WINDOW

MEN'S HAND-TAILORED SUITS . $45 to $75 HAND-TAILORED OVERCOATS . $40 to $70

Over 50 Hand-Tailored Operations

FIFTH AVENUE Men's Shops-Separate Entrances On West 38th and 37th Sts. - Street Level